

> How does the Drug Arrest Referral Service work?

The Drug Arrest Referral Service can be accessed from all police holding stations within North and South Lanarkshire and at Airdrie, Hamilton and Lanark Sheriff Courts.

Custody staff will inform you of the Service after you have been arrested.

If you are arrested and released outwith the Sacro Worker's hours, then you may give the custody staff a note of your name and contact details to enable the Sacro Worker to contact you.

The Sacro Worker will then arrange an appointment for you in the community.

> Confidentiality

Any information that you share with the Sacro Arrest Referral Drugs Worker will remain confidential and will not be disclosed to the police or any third party without your written consent. The exception to this rule is where you inform the Sacro Worker of a serious criminal offence which has been, or may be committed or where there is the risk of harm to yourself or others.

About the Drug Arrest Referral Service in Lanarkshire

If you use drugs or misuse substances, and you are arrested and in custody, the Drug Arrest Referral Service offers you an opportunity to speak with an independent drugs worker about any concerns you may have regarding your drug use.

The Drug Arrest Referral Service aims to enable drug-using offenders to engage with treatment services.

The Service is aimed at all drug-using offenders over 16 years of age, particularly:

- Cocaine and heroin users
- Chaotic poly-drug users
- Prolific/repeat offenders
- Young people
- Care leavers
- Homeless
- Women.

Engagement with the Drug Arrest Referral Service is voluntary and is not a formal part of the criminal justice process.

The Service is available to those over 16 years of age residing in North or South Lanarkshire.

Those with substance misuse issues who reside outwith Lanarkshire boundaries can still be seen by the Sacro Worker, who may refer them on to an appropriate service in their area.

The Sacro Worker will offer you an assessment interview whilst in custody, and if suitable combine this with a follow-up appointment after leaving custody.

The Sacro Worker will help and enable you to make informed choices and access what resources or options are available to you.
