INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

SAFEGUARDING COMMUNITIES – REDUCING OFFENDING

Your Right to Complain

Sacro is a company limited by guarantee. Company registration No. SC86651. Registered charity No. SC016293

> What we do

Sacro's mission is to reduce conflict and offending and make communities safer.

Sacro believes in mutual respect, diversity, capacity for change, personal responsibility and society's responsibility to all its members.

Our services, which all seek to increase community safety, include those that aim to prevent escalation of conflict, divert people from prosecution, restorative justice, and services for prisoners on release. Our services are based on research and international standards of good practice and we are committed to development and innovation.

We work with a broad range of clients, from neighbours in dispute to those who have multiple needs. We work in partnership with local authorities and other service delivery agencies.

> What you can expect from us

We aim to provide a professional service at all times.

When you request information, you can expect:

- a polite response from all members of staff
- a prompt response (we will try to respond within a maximum of 10 working days).

We cannot provide legal advice but will try to suggest alternative sources of information.

As a client/service user, you can expect:

- to be allocated a named Sacro worker who will be responsible for working with you and, where possible, will be your principal point of contact
- to be treated professionally without any form of discrimination on the basis of race, gender, religion, disability, offending background, sexual orientation or age
- to have your situation reviewed regularly, usually on a three month basis
- to be provided with a service consistent with both your welfare and with community safety.

> Sacro's commitment

We promise to deal with your complaint:

- in confidence
- fairly
- as quickly as possible.

We will let you know how your complaint has been dealt with.

All complaints will be recorded and used to improve the service provided by Sacro but your confidentiality will be protected.

> Have your say

We want to hear your views about the service we provide. We need to know when things have been done well and when things have gone wrong. We know we can learn from our mistakes and want to use them to keep improving our service.

If you make a complaint, we will confirm receipt in writing within five working days. We will tell you the result of any investigation into your complaint within 28 working days.

> How you can make a complaint

You can make a complaint yourself or ask someone to do it on your behalf. You can complain in writing, by telephone, fax, e-mail or in person. We have included a form in this leaflet that you may find useful.

If you decide not to use the form, please help us to give you a prompt and accurate reply by including the following information when you contact us:

- your name and address
- a contact telephone number (and/or email address, if you have one)
- full details of your complaint.

Stage 1: complain to your Sacro worker or service manager

In the first instance, please contact either the Sacro worker you have been dealing with, or the manager in your local office, who will try to resolve your complaint.

Stage 2: complain to a senior manager

If you do not wish to do this or are unhappy with the outcome or the way in which your complaint was handled, send a completed complaints form to Sacro National Office where your complaint will be dealt with by the appropriate service manager.

Stage 3: complain to the Chief Executive

If you are still not happy about the outcome or the matter remains unresolved, you can ask for a review of your complaint. You can do this by contacting the Chief Executive. At this stage, complaints should be in writing.

Stage 4: consult a third party

Any complaint, which cannot be resolved at this stage, may upon request be passed to a third party for consideration and, if appropriate, for mediation.
