A Place To Start From

Supported
Accommodation
Service

> What does Sacro do?

Sacro's mission is to reduce conflict and offending and to make communities safer.

Sacro provides a range of Criminal Justice services: Supported Accommodation, Diversion From Prosecution, Arrest Referral services, Bail services, Ending Offending programmes and Throughcare.

> What is Supported Accommodation for?

Supported Accommodation helps to reduce the risk of re-offending.

It helps you to move on to your own housing and independence, particularly following release from prison.

It is Sacro's biggest service and is available in seven major areas of Scotland (see contacts overleaf).

Sacro works with criminal justice social work services that pay for the support we give.

> Types of accommodation

- Supported lodgings
- Single person flats
- Shared flats
- Small hostel/residential units.

> Who can use it?

You need to:

- Be aged 16 or over
- Have accommodation difficulties
- To be looking for support to stop offending
- Be ready to make some changes in your life
- Have some contact with a social worker.

> How can I get a place?

- Ask you social worker to phone us
- Phone us yourself
- We will give your social worker an application form
- After an interview with you, we will decide if and when we can offer you a place.

> What if I am offered a place?

You, your social worker and the Sacro worker, will meet before you move in to discuss what you will be doing during your stay. You will get a moving-in date and we will explain your occupancy agreement and support agreement and answer any questions you have about them.

> Confidentiality

Any information that you share with Sacro will remain confidential and will not be shared with others, unless you agree that this should be done to help you. The only exceptions to this rule are: when not sharing the information would put the health or safety of you or others at serious risk or it would be illegal not to share it.

> How can I find out more?

Sacro have produced a DVD and CD-ROM to further explain the service. The discs are available for viewing in all Scottish prisons.
